

Skylight Volleyball picked 7th in Conference

Defending Frontier Conference regular season and conference tournament champion Lewis-Clark State College received seven first place votes and is the preseason favorite of league volleyball coaches to win the league title for the 2009 season.

Carroll College received one first place vote and was picked to finish second followed by Rocky Mountain College, University of Great Falls, Westminster College, Montana Tech, Montana State-Northern and Montana Western.

Coaches were not allowed to vote for their own teams. First place was worth seven points, second place worth six points, third place worth five points, fourth place worth four points, fifth place worth three points, sixth place worth two points, and seventh place worth one point.

Lewis-Clark State College (7)	49 pts
Carroll College (1)	38 pts
Rocky Mountain	37 pts
