

MSU-Northern adds another volleyball standout from Canada

George Ferguson, Havre Daily News sports editor

Thursday, April 7th, 2011

What is turning out to be an excellent recruiting class for Montana State University-Northern head volleyball coach Bill Huebsch, just got even better.

Huebsch announced the signings of several excellent players recently, and adding to that list is 5-9 setter Shayla Bly from Canada. Bly is currently a senior at John Diefenbaker High in Calgary and has also played five years of club volleyball for the Canuck Stuff Volleyball Club.

At the club level, Bly has seen the highest of the highs, as her teams won a Canadian National Championship in 2007, was a National Finalist in 2010 and won a Provincial Championship in 2009.

Bly is the daughter of Vickie Switzer and Shane Bly, both of Calgary.