The Montana State University-Northern volleyball team suffered its first defeat in Frontier Conference play Thursday night in Salt Lake City. The Westminster Griffins beat the Skylights in five sets by scores of 24-26, 25-18, 26-28, 25-21, 15-10.

Hillary Isleifson led two Skylights in double figures in kills with 13. She hit .258 on the night with eight digs and four blocks. Kelsey Williams recorded 12 kills and 13 digs and Northern had 78 digs as a team. Northern fell to 3-1 in league play and into a four-way tie for first place after the loss. The Skylights (13-5) will travel to Lewiston, Idaho for a match with the Lewis-Clark State Warriors on Saturday afternoon.
