Updated Virtual Campus Tour

MSU-Northern's 360 virtual campus tour has been updated to reflect all of the changes to Hagener Science Center. If you have not been in that building for a while you might want to just check out those upgrades online.

Alumni Board and NLASF Meet the New Football Coaches

MSU-Northern, under the leadership of head coach Jerome Souers, has assembled the dream team of football coaches. Each coach on his team has the experience and skills needed to be the head coach but they are willing to come together to form what could be considered one of the most experienced, and knowledgeable, coaching teams in NAIA history. The new coaching staff consists of Jerome Souers – Head Football Coach, Joe O'Brien-- Associate Head Football Coach and Defensive Coordinator, Steve Broussard – Assistant Football Coach, and Tim Davis – Associate Football Coach. MSU-Northern has hosted two meet and greet events so the Northern Alumni Foundation and the Northern Lights Athletic Scholarship Foundations could get to know the coaches better.

Senator Tester Visits Campus

Senator Jon Tester was on Campus last week to talk with key administrators, visit the Little River Institute, and see the completed Diesel Technology Center. He was extremely pleased to see the progress that has been made, to our campus since his last visit and gave everyone a word of encouragement to keep up the good work. Jon has always been a great friend and advocate for Northern and the Hi-line as a state and federal legislator.

Two Students Receive LSAMP Scholarships

SSS Celebrates National TRiO Day by Helping Feed the Community

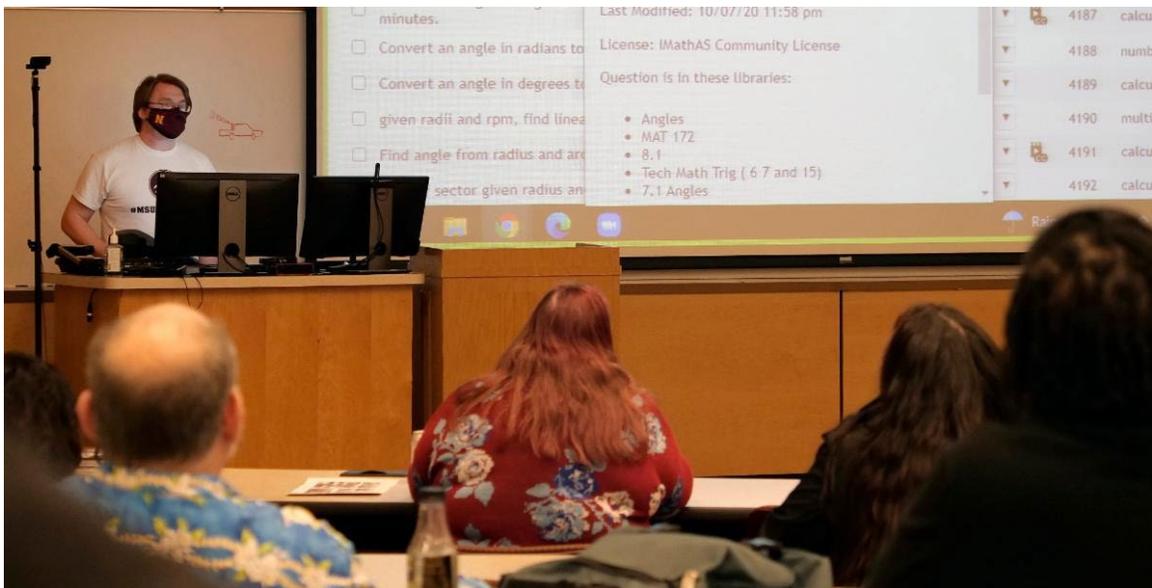

Several Student Support Services (SSS) staff and students helped prepare and serve the daily lunch last Thursday, February 24, at Havre's Feed My Sheep Community Soup Kitchen. The service activity celebrated National TRiO Day. National TRiO Day was established in 1986 to commemorate the annual achievements of Federal TRiO programs, including SSS here at MSUN. According to the Council of Opportunity in Education, TRiO Day provides an opportunity for the nation to focus its "attention on the needs of disadvantaged young people and adults aspiring to improve their lives if they are to become contributing citizens of the country, and to the talent which will be wasted if that investment is not made." Many TRiO programs like SSS celebrate TRiO Day by serving their local communities. Feed My Sheep Community Soup Kitchen provides lunch six days a week free of charge to any community member. They also provide a variety of fresh and packaged foods to go. The kitchen is always grateful for volunteers of all skill levels to join in the good work of feeding our community.

OTLE Presented the Innovative Teaching and Learning Festival

The Office of Teaching & Learning Excellence hosted their 5th annual Innovative Teaching & Learning Festival (formerly the Media Festival). The festival was held Wednesday afternoon (March 2nd) in Hensler Auditorium. Seven faculty members gave the following presentations:

Valerie Guyant — Why Teach Graphic Novels?

Casey Donovan — Technology for Math Instruction

Barbara Zuck — Fairy Tales: A Resource To Put in Your Toolbox

Gwen Hart — BYOB: Build Your Own Business in WRIT 122: Business Writing

Emilee Luke — Artistic & Utilitarian 3D Printing Approaches in the Classroom

Chad Spangler — Do Theories of Motivational Climate Have Application in the Higher Education Classroom?

Amy Smith — Teaching with QR Codes

Short 'N Lowe In Concert – Mar 9

MSU-Northern is pleased to present Short 'n Lowe in Concert at 7:00 p.m. in the Student Union Building. They are a Nashville-based alternative rock band comprised of keys and vocals by Laura Short, and guitar and vocals by Carson Lowe.

The two started writing together in June of 2018 for a simple wedding song which quickly turned into much more. Right off the bat, they had written two or three songs that all appeared to have a cohesive, undeniably authentic sound. Throughout the next six months, the two began to hone their craft as a band and showcase their sound through spellbinding live performances around the greater Nashville area.

The Harvest Opening Delayed – Mar. 10-12, 17-19

The Harvest

Since Spamalot ran later than originally scheduled and MAT is committed to producing theatre at the highest possible quality, the Artistic Staff made the decision to delay the opening of The Harvest by one week in order to maintain our commitment to delivering an outstanding theatre experience to the audiences of Havre and the Hi-Line. We have decided that we will not extend the run of The Harvest so the only dates to catch this amazing production will be March 10-12 and 17-19.

Written by MAT's very own Jay Pyette, The Harvest explores the struggles of a farming family in Northcentral Montana. The patriarch of the family is in poor health and the children return to help bring the crop in but are forced to confront the changes in their relationships and some conflicts from the past. MSU-Northern students can attend free with a valid student ID.
