Career Center Continues to Provide Info Sessions

This week, Wartsila and Butler CAT were on campus holding Info Sessions and job interviews with interested students. These info sessions are a great way to learn about the companies without having to make any commitments. Most share their history, some of the projects they have done or are doing, and job and internship opportunities available with their companies. It is also a good way to learn what the benefits are like, and as an additional bonus they provide refreshments. The next info session scheduled is Tractor and Equipment (CAT) on Wednesday, October 26, from 4-5pm in the ATC Hensler Auditorium. Please check Career Express for future recruiting events.

Fall 2022 Brown Bag Lecture Series – Oct. 31

“Precision Psychiatry: Using Genomic Medicine to Identify Disease Mechanism Underlying Psychiatric Disorders”
By Dr. Giuseppe P. Cortese

MSU-Northern will kick off its Fall 2022 Brown Bag Lecture Series on Monday, October 31, with a presentation by Dr. Giuseppe P. Cortese, MSUN Associate Professor of Biology. The event will be held from noon to 1:00pm in Hagener Science 101 (the Pit) and is open to the public.

In his presentation titled, “Precision Psychiatry: Using Genomic Medicine to Identify Disease Mechanism Underlying Psychiatric Disorders,” Dr. Cortese will discuss the clinical and scientific benefits of a precision medicine-based approach for targeting individual pathophysiology associated with psychiatric disorders. Advances in genomic medicine have provided unique opportunities to better understand the genetic architecture of psychiatric disorders, such as autism spectrum disorder and Schizophrenia, and allowed for more efficient identification of neurobiological disease mechanisms that can be used to develop novel treatments for therapeutic intervention. Dr. Cortese will review his research that utilized genomic medicine, in combination with cellular and molecular techniques, to develop stem cell-derived neuronal models of 22q11.2 Deletion Syndrome (clinically termed DiGeorge Syndrome), a rare genetic disorder that is a true and established risk factor for Schizophrenia.

Northern Alumni highlight update on former Northern All-American wrestler, Rudy James. In 1997 Rudy placed 4th at 150-pound weight bracket and then in 1999 he once again placed 4th at 157-pound weight bracket. Prior to attending Northern, Rudy attended Cerritos College in Norwalk, California, where he was a standout wrestler for the Falcons. There he was a two-time All-American and twice the California Junior College state runner up in the 150 and 158-pound weight classes.

But as you may remember from previous NNN TidBits, Rudy has continued to wrestle. Last week at the 2022 Veteran World Championships in Plovdiv, Bulgaria, Rudy won the silver medal in the 78 kg weight class in the C Division and then won a bronze medal in the 78 kg weight class in the C Division in Greco Roman. This is the first time he has doubled medaled at the World Championships.
