2018 Homecoming Winners Announced

Frida Kahlo Art Exhibit

This art exhibit is in observance of Hispanic Heritage Month 2018. Frida Kahlo is one of the most iconic surrealist female artists in Mexican history. Her art is very autobiographical and dramatic. During the inaugural reception last Monday, the speakers included: Cristina Estrada, who discussed the complex biography of Frida Kahlo; Ana Suda, who referred to Kahlo's art characteristics; Joel Soiseth, Art Professor at MSU-Northern, who elaborated on the surrealist aspects of Kahlo's legacy; and finally Jasmine Carbajal, who talked about the influence of Kahlo's on modern art and pop culture.

Ivy Roots Performs For Campus

Ivy Roots captivated the crowd Thursday night (Sept. 20) in the SUB ballroom as she sang her latest single, "Hypothetical." Ivy Roots is an up and coming singer/songwriter from the Midwest. In addition to being a vocalist and writer, Ivy is a talented pianist, guitarist, and producer who is continually growing in her artistry. Her eclectic style ranges from feel-good 90's R&B/Hip Hop, to acoustic music, Neo Soul and Pop.
